BUZZ'tille Day by Atout France

ANNE Boillon, French Consul-General in Australia, with Patrick Benhamou, Regional Director at Atout France, organised an intimate Bastille Day dinner to bring travel industry honchos out of social Siberia.

There was fine cuisine by the talented Guillaume Brahimi and each course was paired with an exclusive Champagne.

The guests celebrated the 70th anniversary of Club Med as well as the Tour de France in Aug and the French Open in Oct. Australia is in the list of the 14 countries allowed to travel to the European Union, so naturally, guests raised their glass of Laurent-Perrier to the reopening of the international borders.

ANNE Boillon, French Consul General in Australia and Phillipa Harrison, Managing Director Tourism Australia.

PATRICK Benhamou, Regional Director Atout France and Caroline Desaulle, Brand Ambassador Laurent-Perrier.

RACHAEL Harding, General Manager Club Med and Julie Primmer, Head of Retail Helloworld.

ANTHONY Laver, General Manager Scenic and Claudia Rossi, General Manager Mary Rossi Travel.

LAURENT-PERRIER Champagnes were served during the three-course dinner.

BRETT Jardine, Managing Director CATO and Trudy Witbreuk, State Director DFAT.

NEIL Perry and Guillaume Brahimi.

THE famous French truffles soup VGE was served in Le Creuset bowls.