

Excite showcases the Capital of Cool

EXCITE Holidays, in partnership with Destination DC, recently held an exclusive agent event in Melbourne.

Held at The Bowery Locksmith in the uber trendy suburb of Richmond, the event was an opportunity to showcase Washington, DC as part of their Capital of Cool campaign, which ran from 31 Jul until yesterday.

Forty agents were in attendance and had the chance to experience an authentic underground Jazz & Blues evening.

In true DC style, guests were welcomed with an Old Fashioned cocktail and were entertained by a talented saxophonist and guitar duo, who kept everyone's toes tapping all night long.

Penny Brand from Destination DC was on hand to fill the agents in on everything that's happening in DC, and why it really is the capital of cool.

AGENTS had a blast hearing all about Washington, DC and the Capital of Cool campaign.

She provided some fantastic advice and tricks to the agents to help them sell this must-see destination.

The fun didn't end there, with the guests dining on delicious American-style canapes and doughnuts & sipping on Espresso

Martinis (pictured below).

They also had a great time in the photo booth taking some fantastic shots with the DC and Presidential-themed props.

Pictured are images captured at the event.

JAZZ & Blues Entertainment throughout the evening.

ESPRESSO Martini anyone?

MEAGAN Maynard from Excite Holidays & Penny Brand from Destination DC.

HUGH Tiley and Sian Pritchard from Black Rock Travel with Patricia Ricciuti from Excite Holidays.

