

MTA gets ice & cosy with Switzerland

TEN lucky MTA travel agents recently returned from a luxurious and fun-filled 7D6N visit to Switzerland. Hosted by Switzerland Tourism's Birgit Weingartner and Swiss International Air Lines' Guy Wong, the group visited Zurich, Bern, Montreux, Lausanne, Zermatt, Andermatt, Lucerne and Burgenstock. There was no shortage of deluxe hotels, immaculate service and spectacular views at every location.

Not only did the agents get a taste of the country's first class transportation system with their Swiss Travel Passes, but they also enjoyed the unbeatable world-class hospitality on offer, highlights of which included the spectacular Chedi Andermatt and the recently opened Burgenstock Resort, overlooking Lake Lucerne.

Participating agents included Beate Carr, Diana Cargill, Susan Plos, Michelle Edwards, Charissa Hanrahan, Beverly Dewar, Theonie Bustin, Annie Morrison, Danielle Lawson and Carol Foord.

MARCHE de Noel in Montreux.

MAERLITRAM in Zurich - St Nik is still watching.

SNOW is falling.

SOME couldn't get enough of the snow in the middle of the night.

ZURICH covered in snow with freezing temperatures - keep smiling!

PICTURE perfect on the Gornergrat.

SWISS Travel System between Zermatt and Andermatt along the Glacier Express Line.

SWISS

Switzerland.
get natural.

A SHORT visit at The Chedi in Andermatt.

FUN in the snow after a lovely dinner at the Park Hyatt Zurich.