

NTIAs - after the final gong!

LAST Sat's industry night of nights, Australia's National Travel Industry Awards, wrapped up as always with the Singapore Airlines After Party. Hosted at a bar adjacent to the International Convention Centre Sydney, attendees were provided with special wristbands for entry, along with drinks coupons in the glossy travelBulletin themed NTIA program.

Travel Daily was there too, capturing all the action as the industry celebrated and commiserated, with these photos just a small selection of the shenanigans that went on. Lots more photos from the night at facebook.com/traveldaily, and don't forget our exclusive NTIA video at traveldaily.com.au/videos, as well as the special travelBulletin NTIA supplement which is now online at travelbulletin.com.au.
