

Excite's top agents kick-start their day, Hawaiian-style!

IN CONJUNCTION with Hawaii Tourism Oceania, Excite Holidays recently held two exclusive agent events to celebrate their campaign, 'Hawaii: The Spirit of Aloha'.

The celebrations kicked off at The Clean Treats Factory in Sydney's trendy suburb of Alexandria, followed soon after by a second event in Brisbane at South Beach Social, which offered incredible views of the Brisbane River and city skyline.

At each event, a group of 30 agents were treated to a delicious breakfast spread complete with pastries, fruit platters, acai bowls, juices and more.

The Excite Holidays marketing team was in attendance at both events, along with three representatives from Hawaii Tourism Oceania.

Hawaii's Island Chapter Representatives had also flown out especially for the event, with reps from the Islands of Hawaii, Maui, Kauai, and Oahu all on hand to chat to agents about their destinations and share the Aloha Spirit!

HAWAII'S Island Chapter representatives: Karishma Chowfin from Oahu, Maile Brown from Kaua'i, Randy Parker from Maui, and Teresa Cosgrove from the Island of Hawai'i.

Along with full stomachs, agents also walked away with gift bags bursting with Excite Holidays and Hawaii Tourism Oceania merchandise.

Excite said the events "were a huge success and showed agents why Hawaii is still a top destination for Australian travellers".

Visit engage.exciteholidays.com/hawaii to download the curated guide on Hawaii.

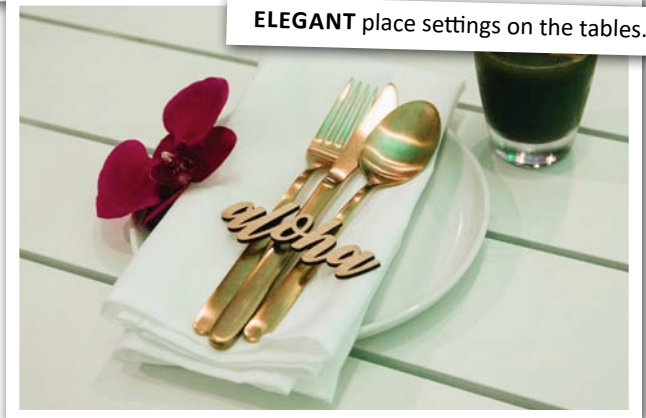

AGENTS were welcomed with traditional kukui nut leis. Pictured: Naomi Thomas from Great Southland Tours.

MAILE Brown with Paul Davies, itravel; Teresa Cosgrove, Kieran van Bunnik, Cruise Express; and Charis Ricafuente, Hawai'i Tourism Oceania.

ELEGANT place settings on the tables.

SHELLEY Moen from Our Travel with Karishma Chowfin and Justina Dimapils from Our Travel.

TERESA Cosgrove from the Island of Hawai'i Visitors Bureau presenting in Brisbane.

MAILE Brown from Kaua'i Visitors Bureau presenting in Sydney.

HAWAII TOURISM
OCEANIA

