

Tourism Fiji Roadshow shares the love

TOURISM Fiji hosted its annual mainstream roadshow this week to coincide with last Wed's Fiji Day, on which Tourism Fiji delivered cupcakes to wholesalers.

The roadshow events welcomed over 400 agents across Adelaide, Melbourne, Sydney and Brisbane, along with 25 suppliers.

This year the agents were also treated to "Hunt for Happiness", an interactive scavenger hunt via smart phones. The downloadable scavenger app allowed agents to find clues and answer questions based around the products of suppliers that were in attendance.

JEFF Bell, Treasure Island, Adelaide.

AGENTS from Travel Managers, Flight Centre Business Travel, Flight Centre Groups, Where2 Travel Malvern, Tourism Fiji, iTravel and Flight Centre St James enjoy an interactive scavenger hunt.

TOURISM Fiji's Australian team flanked by Fijian warriors.

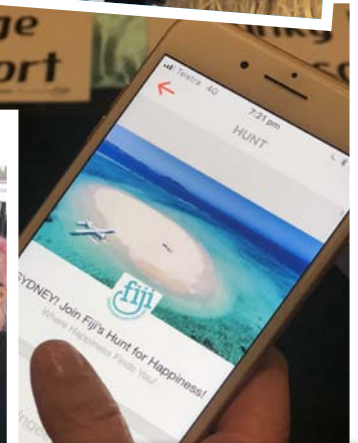

STATE Manager for Vic, SA & Tas, Kara Nelson delivers coconut cupcakes to Britt, Pauline, Cassie and Cathy from Island Escapes for Fiji Day.

AGENTS in Melbourne enjoy taking selfies with Mana Island.

STATE Manager for VIC, SA & TAS, Kara Nelson (centre), hand-delivers coconut cupcakes to Infinity Holidays for Fiji Day.

AGENTS enjoy the innovative scavenger hunt via the smartphone app.

JACKIE Charlton, Captain Cook Cruises, Sydney.

FIJIAN Warriors promoting South Sea Cruises.

TRAVLR'S Gordon Bayne with Shangri-La's Alex Raicebe in Melbourne.

SHARING the Fiji love at the Melbourne roadshow are Amy Williams, Tania Kennedy, and Simone Neal from Travel Counsellors; and Jessica Krammer, 5 Oceans Travel.