Funnies Flashback

WE'VE trawled through the TD Window Seat archives to give you blast from the past. Here's some gems from 06 Mar 20212:

IMMIGRATION officials in the UK have launched a probe after passport office staff arbitrarily decided that acting was "not a proper job".

According to the London Daily Telegraph, an application was rejected after it had been countersigned by Michael Sheldon, who is appearing in the West End stage show Three Days in May.

Sheldon, who signed the form on behalf of his daughter's boyfriend, raised the matter with the Actor's Equity union group which in turn wrote to UK Home Secretary, Theresa May.

The Identity and Passport Service responded by confirming it was undertaking an investigation "and looking at whether further staff training is required".
