Qantas to drop 747 First

QANTAS is set to remove First Class from its entire 747 fleet and only offer the cabin on selected A380 services, in a major fleet revamp foreshadowed last year (TD 17 Nov), according to today's Financial Review.

Just 12 QF A380s will have First Class seating, and will be used for flights to London and Los Angeles, if the $400m plan is signed off by the Qantas board.

Full details of the changes are expected to be released later this month, and could see the number of economy seats on each aircraft

OS publishes fares

AUSTRIAN Airlines today features its new published fares in a special full page which has been placed before Travel Daily's editorial pages.

The non-seasonal fares to Europe lead in at $1699 for economy and $5999 for business class, offering more than 100 destinations and allowing mixed routings, zones and booking classes, with free date changes and reduced cancellation fees.

The fares, commissionable at 7%, auto-price in GDS and are combinable with LH and LX fares, operating in conjunction with TG, QF, CA and BA from Australia to Asia via Bangkok, Tokyo and Beijing - more info 1800 642 438.

increase by up to 20% to around 400 on an A380, along with premium economy and an upgraded business class product.

The four class A380s used on the Kangaroo and Pacific routes would have 60 business class seats (down from the current 72) as well as a new 48-seat economy class cabin area upstairs.

QF is due to report its first half profit result on 18 Feb.

AA targets skill shortage

TRAVEL recruitment specialist AA Appointments says there are "very positive signs that the tourism industry is returning to a healthy state."

In fact md Adriana d'Angelis has warned that despite last year's downturn the skills shortage in travel looks set to return unless staff can be encouraged to remain within the industry.

AA has partnered with a number of the top employers in the industry including Qantas, Stella, Carnival, American Express, Flight Centre and The Travel Corporation to launch a month-long 'Career Fair', which aims to highlight

43 Magellan agents

MAGELLAN Travel has today announced further growth, with the addition of Travel Specialists Mosman as its newest member.

The agency is headed up by Wendy Buckley, who's well known to the industry and is also the force behind the successful Travel With Kidz network.

Magellan gm Andrew Macfarlane said the addition of Travel Specialists "continues Magellan's strategy of assembling the very best of Australia's independent and high achieving travel agents and takes membership to 43 agent locations around Australia."

career paths and stem the tide of talent leaving the industry.

D'Angelis told TD there's an estimated attrition rate of up to 25% as industry staffers look to what look to be greener pastures in the finance, insurance and real estate industries.

"We're aiming to educate people that there are so many great career opportunities within travel - we don't want to lose them outside the industry," she said.

The fair offers staff confidential one-on-one "career assessments" and highlights some of the great career opportunities within the industry, as well as benefits offered by top employers such as ongoing training and development and strong career paths.

Hong Kong famil

HONG Kong Tourism has today announced an opportunity for six travel consultants to each take a child (aged 5-12 years) to Hong Kong on a unique famil in April.

Flying courtesy of Virgin Atlantic, participants will experience the city's famous shopping, dining and culture, as well as experiencing the delights of Hong Kong Disneyland.

Full details of the comp and how to enter can be found on p6.

Window Seat

MATHEMATICALLY inclined travel staff will be thrilled (or confused) as they look at res screens today, because the date - 01-02-2010 - is the same forward and backward.

It's the third palindromic date so far this century, starting with 10 Feb 01 (10-02-2001) - which was the first time such a reversible date sequence had happened in over 800 years, since 29 Nov 1192.

LARGER ladies who are embarrassed on the beach next to bikini-clad waifs are being invited to a special event in Jamaica, targeted at "plus-size women and men who love them."

The first "Big On The Beach" event will be held 12-20 Jun at the Hedonism II resort in Negril.

The mind boggles, with the decadent program featuring such activities as wet T-shirt competitions, nude volleyball, naked twister and, curiously, even a juggling clinic.

It's the brainchild of Todd Crawford, who offers a range of obscene travel packages at the resort and said "plus-size members felt uncomfortable" at previous events.

First with the news on location in Dubai, UAE

Today's issue of TD is coming to you from Dubai, courtesy of Emirates

CLIENTS with a stopover in Dubai on their way to Europe or the UK have a range of sightseeing options available with Arabian Adventures. A popular way to find your bearings in Dubai is to jump on board a city tour which takes visitors to the key attractions and landmarks - the just opened Burj Khalifa (the world's tallest building), the Burj Al Arab hotel, the Old Town and Dubai Marina.

Other highlights of the tour include a visit to the fantastic Dubai Museum which tells of the history of the city, a crossing of Dubai Creek aboard an Abra, followed by a visit to the Spice, Perfume and Gold Souqs.

Some trips also include a visit to the Palm Jumeirah - a manmade land formation in the shape of a palm tree jutting into the Persian Gulf, created to increase the amount of waterfront land - which is home to the lavish Atlantis, The Palm Dubai hotel.

ACCC gets tough

THE Australian Competition and Consumer Commission's chairman, Graeme Samuel has said the watchdog will now begin cracking down on travel companies that are not complying with pricing guidelines introduced last year.

Samuel said, "We have shown a degree of tolerance and patience in getting people on board but there's a point in time when you run out of tolerance and patience and you just say people are blatantly disregarding the law."

He said companies have had adequate time to adopt to the new pricing practises, and that those who defy the rules will face substantial penalties by litigation.

CreativEY car deal

CREATIVE Holidays has teamed up with Etihad Airways to offer a free eight-day Alamo car hire when booking an air and land package to London, Manchester, Dublin or Paris, before 12 Mar.

The minimum cost of packages, including return Coral Economy Class fares varies between $1,700-$1,836 (with taxes) dependent on origin, destination and season.

Austrian incentive

AUSTRIAN Airlines is giving all travel agents booking any of its published fares ex Australia during Feb a Coles Myer Gift voucher.

Agents will earn a $30 or $100 voucher when ticketing a return economy or business class fare.

New Sabre function

SABRE Pacific has introduced a new multi-traveller booking feature for its corporate online booking engine, Sabre Online.

The feature allows corporate travel arrangers to duplicate travel plans for a group of up to four people travelling on the same itinerary using air, hotel and car segments.

GM sales, marketing & product Richard Morgan said not only does the multi-functionality save time but it reduces booking errors and ensures the same fare is used.

Extra cruise comm.

CREATIVE Cruising is offering agents a chance to earn up to 15% commission when booking a cruise holiday that departs in Mar 2010.

The bonus 2% commission deal is available until 31 Mar.

Qatar launch dates

QATAR Airways has announced the start date for services from Doha to four key int'l destinations.

Four times weekly flights to Copenhagen will launch on 30 Mar and to Ankara on 05 Apr, followed by daily connections to Tokyo from 26 Apr and to Barcelona from 07 Jun.

Book comp winners

CONGRATULATIONS to the two final winners of a fabulous South Africa coffee table book in last week's competition.

Angela Woods of Jetset Dingley Village in Vic and Lara Hunt of Duck Creek Mountain Travel in northern NSW will both shortly receive a copy of SouthAfricaChic.

Aldi drops travel

GERMAN supermarket juggernaut Aldi has stopped taking bookings on its UK travel website, just over a year after it moved into the holiday sector.

Existing bookings aren't affected, but the website says Aldi is "currently reviewing the travel service to offer customers even better value for money."

Insight appointment

INSIGHT Vacations has today announced the appointment of Andy Roberts as its new sales manager for Victoria.

He's been with Insight for some time, most recently in NSW and before that in the UK.

1car1 Oz Day celebrations

ABOVE: UK and Ireland car rental specialist 1car1 celebrated Australia Day last week with a sausage sizzle and a trivia contest about Australia.

The team's brain power was tested with tricky questions such as 'Name the five largest islands of Australia (sorry Tasmania does not count)' and 'Which is the shortest way driving around Australia - clockwise or anti-clockwise?'

Ryanair offers to buy Webjet stake

DON'T get too excited - the Irish low-cost carrier isn't planning to move into the Australian online travel industry.

Ryanair Holdings has made an offer to take an equity stake in privately owned Brazilian airline WebJet, which operates 20 737 aircraft serving around 10 domestic ports in Brazil.

The Ryanair move comes in the lead-up to changes in legislation which will allow foreigners to own up to 49% of Brazilian carriers, up from the current 20%.

WIN A TRIP TO EUROPE

To celebrate the start of the New Year, Rail Plus is giving Travel Daily agent readers the opportunity to win some awesome prizes during the months of January and February.

To enter this great competition, subscribers will this week have to simply correctly identify the name of the train pictured to the right, and come up with a creative caption to accompany this photo.

There will be a major prize awarded at the end of the competition period of a place on the 2010 Rail Plus European familiarisation being held from 28 Apr to 08 May 2010, visiting Northern Italy, Switzerland, France and the UK* - for the best caption overall!

A weekly prize of a Eurail Select Pass for 5 days in 3 countries will also be up for grabs for the cleverest caption received each week, as decided by the Rail Plus judging panel.

So put on those thinking caps and email your caption and contact details to railpluscomp@traveldaily.com.au.

No Archives pics

TOURISTS will be banned from taking photos of the US Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and Bill of Rights from later this month.

The historic documents are housed in Washington DC at the National Archives, which attracts more than 1 million visitors a year.

Officials said the move will help protect the documents and also improve the flow of traffic.

South Africa probe

COMPETITION authorities in South Africa have launched an investigation into the country's domestic airlines over alleged collusion relating to "ticket costs and pricing strategies" for air travel during the FIFA soccer World Cup this year.

Carriers embroiled in the controversy include South African Airways, SA Airlink, Mango, SA Express and BA-owned Comair.

Choice reaffirms

CHOICE Hotels International has announced it remains committed to opening two properties in Jacmel, Haiti following last month's devastating earthquake.

"Choice Hotels... will continue to collaborate to see these projects to completion and open two great properties in the coastal Caribbean town," said the group's vp of emerging markets, Brian Parker.

In Jan, Choice said it would open a 32-room Comfort Inn hotel and a 120-room Ascend Collection member hotel in Haiti (TD08 Jan).

JAL board shakeup

JAPAN Airlines Corporation has named a new board of directors and culling the number of executive officers by a dozen.

There are 11 newly appointed staff making up the 31 person board under the leadership of JAL Group chairman Masaru Onishi.

"With a younger, slimmer top management that is expected to comprehensively draw up and speedily implement effective measures, the JAL Group is determined to achieve a swift revitalization of the company," the Group said.

RIDE in Honkers

STAFF from Rail Europe are this week getting together in Hong Kong for the inaugural Rail Europe International Distribution Event.

The RIDE event unites 20 of Rail Europe's top GSAs, including Rail Plus, Rail Tickets, CIT and Infinity and rail partners, such as SNCF (France), DB (Germany), Eurostar, Trenitalia (Italy) and Thalys, along with non-European rail carriers.

Australasia mgr Richard Leonard told TD the aim of the event is to share the victories and challenges surrounding global distribution, with five of the top GSAs asked to present, including Rail Plus.

"This is the first of its kind and we hope it will be followed by similar events in coming years," Leonard said.

WIN A SPOT FOR YOU & YOUR CHILD ON THE ULTIMATE HONG KONG FAMILY FAMILIARISATION

To celebrate the Year of the Tiger, the teams at Virgin Atlantic, the Hong Kong Tourism Board and Hong Kong Disneyland have joined forces with Travel Daily to offer travel consultants the chance to win a spot on a truly unique Hong Kong familiarisation trip taking place between 06-10 April 2010.

Six travel agents and their child (aged 5-12 yrs) will join the magical adventure in a City that offers endless activities and amusements for children and parents.

With flights courtesy of kid-friendly airline, Virgin Atlantic Airways, and ground arrangements generously supplied by Hong Kong Disneyland and the Hong Kong Tourism Board, the winners will stay a total of 2 nights in sparkling downtown Hong Kong and 2 nights at Hong Kong Disneyland, and will experience Hong Kong's famous shopping, dining and culture, as well as the magic of Hong Kong Disneyland and much more!

How to Enter:

For a chance to win one of 6 spots for you and your child on this Hong Kong Family Famil trip all you have to do is send in your most creative photograph featuring yourself and your child including aspects of Hong Kong, Virgin Atlantic Airways and Hong Kong Disneyland!!

Email your photos to hkgcomp@traveldaily.com.au by 5.30pm Sunday 28 February 2010.
