Free Hayman wedding

COUPLES who announce their engagement on Hayman next month will be invited to return to the island for a complimentary wedding, complete with celebrant, a ceremony location and set-up and the help of a professional Hayman wedding planner.

The Whitsundays island is offering a range of Valentine's deals including an Ultimate Hayman Proposal package. Costing $10,000, the package includes four nights in a luxury Beach Villa, a Perle degustation dinner on Valentine's Day, a one hour hot stone couple's massage and helicopter transfers.

There's also a $2,450 4-night Romantic Escape incl breakfasts and a private dinner.

Details on 1800 075 175.

Wholesale rearrangement

THE shock restructure of Jetset Travelworld Wholesale announced today (TD breaking news) sees the business revert to three separate organisational units - similar to the arrangement before JTG merged with Stella just 15 months ago.

Simon Bernardi, who was lured across to JTG to lead the wholesale division from Qantas (TD 01 Oct 2010) "has decided to leave the company," according to a notice from ceo Peter Lacaze, but will work to facilitate a smooth move to the new structure.

His 15 month tenure in the role has seen a swathe of initiatives including the combination of the local agency sales teams, centralised product purchasing, significant development of the ReadyRooms online platform, the creation of the Jetset Holidays, Travelworld Holidays and Cruise Holidays brands, the creation of a major ski program and a range of other moves to consolidate the group's wholesale position.

Under the new structure Travel Indochina md Paul Hole will report directly to Lacaze, while the ATS Pacific inbound operation will be headed up by Col Hughes and again report to the ceo.

Michael Londregan, who has been in charge of the Stella businesses in North America for four years - including Qantas Vacations, Travel2, Islands in the Sun and a retail-facing Travelscene brand - will relocate from Los Angeles to become General Manager JTG Wholesale.

He'll be in charge of Qantas Holidays, Viva!, Harvey's Choice, USA and global purchasing.

Lacaze said the changes are effective immediately, saying he was grateful to Bernardi for his assistance with the transition "and wish him all the very best".

New FIFO carrier

A NEW domestic Fly In Fly Out air charter carrier is expecting to launch flight operations in Q1 this year, called JetGo Australia.

The airline says its owners and management team "possess extensive industry experience."

The jetgoaustralia.com website, states the start up is "committed to the introduction of modern high technology aircraft that bring a new level of efficiency, reliability and cost effectiveness, yet to be deployed into the Australian market."

It's understood JetGo will offer services from Sydney, Brisbane, the Gold Coast & Sunshine Coast, utilising Embraer 135 jets.

Thailand comp winner

ENTRIES are continuing to flood in for this month's amazing TD competition, in which Centara Hotels and Resorts is offering a trip to Thailand every week.

Congratulations to Michelle Pearson from Harvey World Travel Tuncurry in NSW, who has been selected as the week 1 winner for her entry:

Centara - The place that I would like to be.

Where a relaxing resort, spacious rooms and friendly staff will be there to greet me.

Michelle has won the first of four holidays for two people, incl four nights at Centara Grand Beach Resort Phuket and a three night stay at Centara Anda Dhevi Resort & Spa in Krabi.

See page six for comp details.

Doyle to take the CCC reins

CAPTAIN Cook Cruises this morning announced the appointment of Richard Doyle as its new Head of Sales and Marketing, which will see him lead the team promoting the CCC Sydney and Murray River cruise product worldwide.

The move follows last year's acquisition of the company by the Sealink Travel Group (TD 25 Aug), with the company touting Doyle's "strategic skills, digital platform knowledge and a very strong international and Australian business to business network."

Doyle, who's been a consultant for the past two years and before that was Director Asia/Japan and Cruise for Tourism Northern Territory, was chair of Cruise Down Under from 2002 to 2010.

During the 1990s he was also NSW state mgr for APT.

Jackie Charlton, who has been in charge of sales and marketing for Captain Cook Cruises for more than ten years, will be stepping down from her role to concentrate on the promotion and operation of Captain Cook Cruises Fiji, which is still owned by the Haworth family.

Emirates tartan push

EMIRATES has announced a significant expansion of flights to Scotland, with Glasgow services moving from daily to double daily effective from 01 Jun this year.

The carrier has been flying to Glasgow since 2004, and the expansion will lift capacity by 47% with an additional 199 seats each way per day.

The move will also see EK offer First Class cabins on both daily flights - the first time this has been available on any commercial airline operating into Scotland.

The expansion also sees additional cargo capacity available into the country.

QF flexes its muscles

QANTAS was yesterday announced as the official airline for Athletics Australia.

The 12 month partnership will see Qantas as the naming rights sponsor of the upcoming Australian Athletics Tour and the Melbourne Track Classic as athletes compete against each other in a bid to ensure a place within the Australian team for the London 2012 Olympics which takes place 27 Jul-12 Aug.

The tour includes events in Adelaide, Perth, Sydney and Melbourne which will be covered by the Nine Network as well as live streamed by Telstra Bigpond.

Going black for more

AIR New Zealand has rolled out its rugby-focused All Black livery on one of its smallest aircraft - a Beech 1900D (below).

The aircraft joins a number of other All Black aircraft in the fleet, with plans to roll out a further two Beech aircraft in the Kiwi colours during 2012.

NZ also recently went to the other extreme, unveiling a new 777 also in the black livery.

Trafalgar Europe very strong

THE strong Australian dollar is continuing to drive Europe bookings for Trafalgar Tours, which says it's "currently witnessing a huge surge" in demand.

MD Matthew Cameron-Smith said that the value created by having the Aussie dollar above 80 Euro Cents was "really creating that impetus to make people travel imminently".

He said Trafalgar was seeing a shorter booking lead time, with the strongest increase in sales from families which has seen the Family Experiences Europe program up 55% on last year.

The top performing destination is Italy, followed closely by regional France, but Trafalgar is also seeing a resurgence of interest in Britain and Ireland, Cameron-Smith said.

The wholesaler is also offering earlybird airfares with Emirates, offering flights from just $1689pp ex SYD, MEL, BNE and PER when purchased in conjunction with a 2012 Trafalgar trip which leads in at $1335ppts.

The special is on sale until 31 Mar for travel 01 Apr-03 Jun and 24 Aug-31 Oct.

New UK rail line

THE UK government has announced the go-ahead for a new high-speed train between London and Birmingham.

Dubbed HS2 (for High Speed 2), Secretary of State for Transport Justine Greening described the line as "the most significant transport infrastructure project for a generation".

The Birmingham link is just the first part of the scheme, which will also provide high capacity rail links to Leeds and Manchester, with intermediate stations in the East Midlands and Yorkshire.

It will connect with the existing HS1 line which is used by Eurostar to take passengers to Europe under the English Channel.

The first phase of HS2 is scheduled to be operational by 2026, and would cut travel time between London and Birmingham to just 49 minutes.

Window Seat

AN Aussie entrepreneur has launched a new website which provides a way for travellers to track down random strangers who they want to meet again.

Will Scully-Power says he created WeMetOnAPlane.com to help people who have "met that special someone on a plane but for whatever reason you didn't end up exchanging your contact details with each other."

The site allows users to search using a flight number and time to share their story of love at first sight - and hope that the other person is also looking to catch up via the site.

Scully-Power, who met his girlfriend during a flight last year, said that more than 4400 people search the term 'met on a plane' on Google each month.

THE US Transportation Security Administration has come under fire once again for being too heavy-handed, after officers confiscated some cupcakes at an airport checkpoint in Las Vegas just before Christmas.

It sounds extreme, and it wasn't because the treats had some savage weaponry secreted inside them.

In fact the confiscated items were a disgustingly sweet delight called a "cupcake in a jar" (pictured below) which sees them packed inside a jar filled with icing.

That meant they fell foul of the liquids, aerosols and gels rules which prohibit liquids amounting to more than 100ml.

JOURNALIST

Would you like to join Australia's favourite travel publications? Travel Daily and its associated titles Cruise Weekly and the new Business Events News are looking to appoint a journalist who will be a key part of our ongoing growth.

We are looking for someone who will enjoy being part of our busy, fun team, working to daily deadlines and continuing our passion to be "first with the news" in travel, cruising and also with our soon-to-launch new business tourism title.

This is a newly created full-time role in which the successful applicant will work with our existing editorial staff to produce the newsletters each day. You will also be required to represent the company at industry functions and events.

Requirements:

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Travel industry experience.
- Ability to work to deadlines, with an eye for detail.
- Friendly, well presented and outgoing.
- Knowledge of desktop publishing would be beneficial.

The position is based in our office in Epping, NSW with an attractive salary package on offer. Join the fun and friendly team at the travel industry's leading stable of publications.

Applications, which will be treated in strict confidence, should be made in writing to jobs@traveldaily.com.au by Mon 16th January 2011.

Peregrine iPad winner

ABOVE: Jimmy Douglas from My Adventure Store in Perth is now the proud owner of a funky Apple iPad2, after correctly answering all of the questions in a recent Peregrine online training session.

The training, which was accessed via a link from ads in Travel Daily, required agents to answer a series of questions about Peregrine's destinations and style of travel.

Initially targeting 500 completed questionnaires, the campaign saw such a strong response that in the end more than 1000 travel agents underwent the training, according to Peregrine Industry Sales Manager, Elizabeth Young. Douglas is pictured above accepting his new gadget from Peregrine WA rep Chani Hood.
