Daintree Eco sold

TROPICAL North Queensland's 23-year old Daintree Eco Lodge & Spa has been acquired by hospitality and brewing company Colonial Leisure Group (CLG).

The firm already owns Orpheus Island off the Queensland coast and a small fleet of aircraft and helicopters, and plans to offer connections between the two properties to "greatly enhance tourism in the region and provide a unique guest experience."

CLG will invest in much-needed repairs and soft updates to guest accommodation, and subject to government funding will formulate other upgrades.

Earlier this year, financial issues saw administrators appointed at Daintree Eco Lodge & Spa while the property continued to operate (TD 24 May).

Amadeus adds Lido link

AMADEUS has now implemented live content from The Lido Group's Australian Accommodation Data Exchange, meaning regional accommodation content is now available to Amadeus agents for the first time.

The move was flagged last year (TD 26 Oct), with content initially including 51 new properties, with 40 Golden Chain and Mainstay motels in Australia and NZ to be added in the coming months.

Amadeus expects 450 more hotels to be added over the next year, with Lido Group md Steve Mackenzie saying partnering with the technology firm "is crucial to ensure our leading hotel content is accessible to travel agencies around the world".

The new hotel content is accessible under the 'AA' chain code on all Amadeus powered channels including corporate booking tools, travel agency websites and the Amadeus Selling Platform, with full integration into PNR and mid-office systems.

Amadeus md Tony Carter said "ensuring agents have access to the best choice of relevant hotel bookings is a key priority for us."

Create still trading

TWO of the branch locations operated as Create Travel by Telfrid Corporation (TD Fri) have been sold and are continuing to trade normally.

Create Travel Forest Lake and Create Travel Carindale are now operated by SJ Pty Ltd and LuvTravel Pty Ltd.

MEANWHILE, Carlson Wagonlit Travel says the closure of two branch agencies advised by the Travel Compensation Fund (TD Fri) is due to the consolidation of some space in its Sydney and Canberra locations, which are still "very much in operation".

Mantra enters TAA

MANTRA Group ceo Bob East will join the board of Tourism Accommodation Australia from 01 Sep, with the move seeing Mantra join the hotel industry advocacy organisation.

The board also includes key industry players from Crown, IHG, Hilton, SilverNeedle, Starwood, Choice, Hyatt and Wyndham.

SQ upgrading SYD lounge

RENOVATION works have now commenced at Singapore Airlines' SilverKris lounge at Sydney Airport as a brand new design concept is implemented for its global debut.

During the works the lounge will be closed to all members, guests and eligible partners until Nov.

Singapore Airlines announced last year that it had engaged interior design firm ONG&ONG to create and configure the design at all SilverKris lounges worldwide as part of a five-year, $20m lounge upgrade (TD 24 Aug 2012).

In the interim, the carrier says arrangements have been made for passengers booked in Suites, First Class, Business Class, PPS Club and KrisFlyer Elite Gold to utilise Star Alliance partner Air New Zealand's Sydney lounge at SYD's T1 International Terminal, although non-travelling guests will be unable to enter.

Conditions will apply to Virgin Australia's Velocity Platinum and Gold members to utilise the same facility travelling in Economy Class, subject to availability, the carrier added.

NBO improvements

KENYA Airways has taken to social media to assure passengers "all efforts" are being made to restore full operations at Nairobi Jomo Kenyatta Airport as soon as possible, after last week's fire.

Additional tented waiting areas have been created to improve pax check-in flow processes and new temporary holding facilities are also under construction, KQ says.

KQ is operating normal domestic services and a limited number of international services from NBO.

MEANWHILE, Qantas has issued a commercial waiver for codeshare flights to NBO valid for tickets issued on/before 13 Aug, for travel to/before 17 Aug - more at www.qantas.com.au/agents.

QT Bondi Beach

THE new-build Pacific Bondi Beach has named QT Hotels & Resorts as the operator of the project's hotel development.

The $440m project will feature 69 one- and two-bedroom hotel apartments, with construction to commence later this year and a slated opening for early 2016.

Record breaking year at Contiki

BACK-TO-BACK years of double-digit growth from Aussies has helped Contiki blow its forecast sales figures for this market out of the water, managing director Fiona Hunt has revealed.

Speaking to Travel Daily on Fri, Hunt confirmed Contiki had pulled in a record year in 2013, with booking levels one year ahead of schedule.

Product evolution and "a really exciting brand proposition" has paid off for Contiki, Hunt said, with fine-tuning & development of the firm's offering over the past few years retaining interest from the youth sector.

"We are finding as the business develops & our consumers grow and become more sophisticated, our market is changing."

Hunt said Contiki was finding "more layers" of different types of customers within the tour operator's database.

Fifteen years ago the lion's share of Contiki's business was the 18-25yo Europe 'rite of passage' trip, but progressively there has been a sizeable split in the market, with more 25-30yo's now venturing to Latin America, the USA and Asia.

She said the older market was still craving Contiki's style of travel in terms of social interaction with like-minded people, but wanted it in a different format - such as smaller groups, more authentic experiences and a slower pace.

"We will continue to develop the product as our consumer changes, to suit what they want."

Hunt added the firm was working hard on trying to tackle some of "historical references" of Contiki, as it "needs to be reflective of to what Contiki is now, not 10 to 15 years ago."

Evergreen Africa '14

EVERGREEN Tours has boosted its Africa touring program for 2014, introducing a new 29-day Ultimate Africa Tour and a 10-day Kenya Safari itinerary which can be tacked onto its 18-day South Africa & Victoria Falls trip.

The bolstered offering follows an "exceptional" take up from Evergreen's inaugural program last year, says gm Angus Crichton.

'You're Invited' inclusions have been incorporated into tours along with a selection of exclusive lodges targeted at guests looking for a deluxe classic safari and national treasures experience at a mid-range price, Crichton added.

Evergreen's 29-day tour is priced under $380 per person per day.

Webinars to promote the new program are being held tomorrow from 8:15-8:45am, plus there's a chance to win an FOC spot on an Africa famil.

East & West Coast agents register at www.bit.ly/ETafr14ECweb or www.bit.ly/ETafr14WCweb.

Window Seat

TOURISTS and commuters walking the streets of London recently would have been rubbing their eyes in disbelief as a giant metallic cat was sitting outside the Battersea Dogs and Cats Home (pictured below).

The realistic albeit strange sight was in place to celebrate the official introduction of a cat token to the Hasbro Monopoly board game.

Millions of Monopoly fans from 185 countries around the world voted for the new cat token to be added to the popular game, replacing the out-of-favour iron token.

The giant cat's arrival certainly showed the Scottie Dog who was the new top animal in town.

Cruise pax spend up in Tassie

A NEW study on the state of the Tasmanian cruise industry shows a healthy 41% spike in the number of passengers and crew visiting Australia's island state during the 2012/13 cruise season compared to the prior year.

Released on Thu, the Tasmanian Cruise Ship survey found 104,700 visitors entered Tasmania by sea (over 80% of which were paying passengers), bringing numbers back into line with pre-GFC levels.

The result was a 30,700 increase on last season's visitor numbers. They spent an incredible $10.1 million while on land in Tassie, nearly double that of the 2010/11 cruise season.

The average number of pax and crew per ship was 2,630 - up more than 1,000 on the previous season as a result of larger size & capacity of vessels deployed.

Not surprisingly, the bulk of passengers were Australian (at 46%), followed by Americans (24%), Brits & Irish (13%), Canadians (7%) and Kiwis (4%).

Of the pax that went ashore, 61% took up a shore excursion offered by the cruise line (39% had pre-booked a tour before departing), while 14% booked a tour direct with a local operator.

Nearly 70% of pax arrived between Jan-Mar this year, with Mar the most popular month, accounting for 28% of all 2012/13 cruise ship season passengers.

MEANWHILE, Tourism Tasmania has launched the second stage of its Go Behind the Scenery campaign to lure interstate visitors during spring & summer.

The promo has a price-tag of over $7m Tasmania's Tourism Minister Scott Bacon says, comprised of a $2.8m investment from Tourism Tasmania, TV, print, outdoor and digital advertising valued at $2.4m and $1.7m in co-op & marketing activities with travel and airline partners.

Today's issue of TD is coming to you from Broome, courtesy of Cable Beach Resort & Spa.

CABLE Beach Club Resort and Spa in Broome is the only resort directly overlooking the beautiful Cable Beach, an iconic stretch of the Kimberley Coast.

The inspiration for the design of the resort was taken from the 19th Century 'pearl rush', with its 'Broome style bungalows' where pearl luggers lived, mixed with the cosmopolitan and colourful legacy of the pearling industry.

The resort occupies 26 acres and has over 200 rooms with a variety of accommodation options, including studio rooms, 2 and 3 bedroom bungalows with kitchenette, villas with their own private plunge pool and luxury suites with butler service.

Cable Beach Club Resort has everything you could want on a relaxing getaway - several dining options, two swimming pools one for adults only, tennis courts, kids playground area, mini golf, gym plus a spa and salon.

Not to be missed is the resort's stunning array of art, with guided tours available for guests to truly appreciate the collection.

FJ says "I Do" to World Record

ABOVE: Undoubtedly, a great way to help promote a new name after rebranding is by creating a new Guinness World Record.

That's exactly what Fiji Airways did last week, selecting five loving couples to get married onboard one of its aircraft at an altitude of 41,000 feet above sea level travelling from Auckland to Nadi.

To set the new benchmark, the vows needed to be exchanged higher than 40,000 feet, with an official Guinness World Records adjudicator also there to verify.

The five couples were rewarded with an instant honeymoon at the Westin Denarau Island Resort & Spa Fiji and the BLU Radisson Fiji Denarau Island.

VA, JQ jet tarmac ding

INVESTIGATIONS by the Australian Transport Safety Bureau into contact between a Virgin Australia and Jetstar aircraft in Melbourne over the weekend are expected to examine air traffic control clearance procedures for the Virgin aircraft.

The ATSB will also look at radio communication between the JQ jet and air traffic control.

An estimated $3 million damage bill to both aircraft was caused in the scrape between the wing of the VA jet and tail of the JQ plane.

Cook Islands gift-card

BOOKINGS on Air New Zealand direct flights from Sydney to the Cook Islands made by 21 Aug will be rewarded with a $50 Visa Gift Card per one-way sector as part of a new travel agent incentive.

Eligible SYD-RAR departures are on NZ60 on 17, 24 and 31 Aug, or NZ61 returning from Rarotonga on 16, 23 and 30 Aug - register at cookislands.travel/auincentive.

VS pop-up restaurant

IN WHAT has been dubbed an industry first, Virgin Atlantic has opened a pop-up restaurant at London Heathrow airport.

Located within the Loft area of the VS Clubhouse Lounge, Upper Class guests will be able to sample a range of Peruvian dishes, including Drunk Scallops and Ensalada de Quinoa.

But passengers will have to be quick as 'Ceviche' is only open for one week, for 30mins a day from noon, between 12 and 18 Aug.

World Cup for Coffs

COFFS Harbour on the NSW North Coast has scored a touch down, securing rights to host the 2015 Touch Football World Cup.

To be held in Apr/May, the event is expected to lure over 100 teams from up to 30 nations.

NSW Tourism Minister George Souris said the coup "will not only benefit the local area but will have flow-on effects for the State economy, providing a great opportunity for those visiting the area to explore all that the region has to offer."

Audi A4s only rentals

US-BASED car rental company Silvercar has made its first move outside of the state of Texas, opening a new depot at San Francisco International Airport.

What makes the upmarket rental firm unique is its premium fleet of vehicles consist of only silver Audi A4s, so there is "always an upgrade" for renters.

Vehicles come complete with in-car wi-fi, Bluetooth pairing, multi-media in-dash navigation system and toll tracking.

Silvercar's other depots are located at Dallas/Fort Worth, Dallas Love Field, Houston and Austin airports.

Brochures of the Week

WELCOME to Brochures of the Week, Travel Daily's Monday feature. If your firm is releasing a new brochure you'd like to make the industry aware of, send a brief description summarising its features and itineraries, including a PDF of the front cover, and contact details to brochures@traveldaily.com.au.

SeaLink - Discover Murray River 2013-14

This new eight-page guide is a dedicated feature to the range of three, four and seven-night cruises on the Murray River from Mannum to Blanchetown in SA. Sailing aboard the Murray Princess, the guide details the onboard facilities, deck plans, and accommodation aboard the classic paddlewheeler. River and water levels are currently strong, with passenger numbers already high. For those with more time, extensions to Kangaroo Island, Adelaide and the Barossa Valley are also available.

World Expeditions - The Americas 2013-14

A major announcement coming in World Expeditions' latest guide is that the Waitukubuli National Trail in Dominica has been added as a new product for the 2014 season. The trail is the only long-distance walking trail in the Caribbean, and is now available for the first time to Australian walking holiday enthusiasts. The 183km track, known as "The Nature Island", crosses the entire island, never before being available commercially in Australia. Many other exciting walks are featured within.

APT - Africa Small Group Safaris 2014

Significant demand for the wildlife-rich continent has seen APT boost its offering for next year, with two brand new itineraries created. Part of the increased operation is a doubling of departures on two-night Chobe River cruises on the Zambezi Queen & new tour extensions. One of the most exciting developments though is the launch of the company's own luxury tented camp in the Serengeti Plains. Signature Experiences featured in the guide include visits to isolated villages, bush dinners & choir performances.

Avalon Waterways - World Collection 2014

The most exotic and flavourful river cruise offerings of this great wide world are thoroughly covered in this new mini-brochure launched by Avalon Waterways. Twelve different itineraries feature within, detailing culture-packed journeys on some of the world's best rivers including the Nile, Mississippi, Amazon, Mekong, Yangtze and among the picturesque Galapagos Islands. Newly featured is the company's newest addition, Aria, a luxury 16-suite vessel boasting panoramic viewing windows and more.

Travel Projects - Latin America Travel Specialist 2014

Currently being distributed, the new guide from the Central and South America experts is packed with colourful imagery designed to evoke mental images of oneself immersed in the destination. Available tours are exquisitely detailed with tips on the best time of year to visit, transport, meals and daily activities. The guide is sorted by the different parts of the continent with land and cruise tours in single & multiple countries.

Discover the World Cruising - Norway & Scandinavia

Offering departures from Bergen or Kirkenes nearly every day of the year, cruising along the scenic fjords, lakes and rivers of the Scandinavian coastline can easily clarify why it has been labelled The World's Most Beautiful Voyage". Itineraries ranging from 6-12 days feature, along with tour programs that allow for a more in-depth exploration of the country and neighbouring Sweden and Denmark. A number of other exploration cruises to Europe's west coast, the British Isles and more are also featured.

Mantra expands its vision

INSPIRING dignitaries from tourism, business and Australian sport were in attendance, joining 200 of the company's senior team members at the Mantra Group's 2013 company conference.

Held at the Mantra on Salt Beach on the NSW Tweed Coast, guests included company Ambassador Pat Rafter, former Wallaby Peter FitzSimons and swimmer Brooke Hanson, who all participated in a special forum on leadership excellence in business and sport.

Tourism Australia ceo Andrew McEvoy updated attendees on the progress of the Tourism 2020 strategy, while Tourism & Transport Forum chairman Bruce Baird spoke on the progress of the industry following the success of the Sydney Olympics in 2000.

Additionally, Todd Sampson of The Gruen Transfer regaled attendees with stories of his business life to-date in a presentation which earned him a standing ovation from the crowd.

Banks take IT's HQ

THE outlook is looking ominous for India's Kingfisher Airlines (IT) after lenders repossessed its Mumbai Headquarters, according to reports from India.

The move comes as guarantors of the carrier failed to pay service charges owing to a number of banks seeking to recover debts.

Excellence within the group was recognised publicly, with a number of accolades awarded to high-performing group members.

Mantra Lorne general manager Alistair Munro was bestowed with the honour of General Manager of the Year, with Mantra Circle on Cavill named Property of the Year.

Continuing the company's philanthropic endeavours, Mantra Group ceo Bob East presented the Australian Red Cross with the proceeds of year-long fundraising efforts by the team - $85,000.

The contribution was the first of a three-year collaboration with the organisation.

Accepting the donation was Leisa Bourne from the Australian Red Cross, who is pictured (2nd from right) with Mantra Group cfo Steve Becker, CSR Officer Louise Johnstone & ceo Bob East.

Virtuoso Travel Week

MORE than 4000 delegates representing luxury hotels, cruise lines, airlines, tour operators and resorts will meet this week at Las Vegas' Bellagio Hotel & Resort for the annual Virtuoso Travel Week.

Among attendees at the five day event is a record delegation of 74 travel advisors and agency owners from Australia and NZ.

The event will offer numerous opportunities for networking, training & business development.

New aircraft for PS

UKRAINE International Airlines has taken delivery of the first of four new Boeing B737-900 aircraft to be inducted into its fleet.

The new units will be operated in a two-class configuration and will assist the carrier's network expansion & fleet renewal plans.

Ritz-Carlton to Israel

THE first hotel under the Ritz-Carlton brand in Israel will open by the end of this year, the company has confirmed.

To be located in Tel-Aviv, the Ritz-Carlton Herzliya will consist of 197-rooms including 82 suites offering sea views, Fitness Centre, restaurant and rooftop bar.

Mercure Portsea open

VICTORIAN Education Minister Martin Dixon has joined with TV star Eddie McGuire to open the newest addition to Accor's Mercure brand - the Mercure Portsea Golf Club and Resort.

The hotel on Vic's Mornington Peninsula is the 39th Mercure property in Australia and offers 24 rooms, conference facilities for up to 300 people and 18-hole championship golf course.
