QF availability shifts to LHR

QANTAS has adjusted its availability displays for flights to Europe, and is now suggesting that travel agents route their clients travelling to the continent via London Heathrow rather than directly through its Dubai hub.

The move shows a preference by Qantas to put passengers on its own aircraft, despite the "metal-neutral" Emirates alliance.

Despite proudly touting its one stop connections to a host of European destinations as part of its EK partnership, GDS screens and other booking portals are now suggesting that travellers should travel to destinations such as Rome in two stops - one in Dubai and the other in London, connecting through to Italy on oneworld partner British Airways.

The change has also impacted availability displays for flights to London itself, with the Airline Hub Buzz website highlighting an Amadeus screen suggesting that Qantas bookings from Brisbane to Heathrow should be routed as a two stop journey through Dubai via Melbourne or Sydney, rather than on the direct Emirates flight from the Queensland capital.

The QF codeshare flights with Emirates have not been removed from the GDS, but require bypass commands, meaning agents have to look harder to book the one-stop Europe routes.

Achievers to ZQN

QANTAS Holidays and Viva! Holidays this morning announced it will hold the 2014 Global Achievers celebration across the ditch, in Queenstown on 08 Nov.

Partners for the event include Tourism New Zealand, Air New Zealand and Virgin Australia.

Webjet Exclusives launch

ONLINE travel agency Webjet has moved into the "deals" market with the debut of its new Webjet Exclusives product (TD breaking news) - a range of short-term fixed price travel offers.

Foreshadowed earlier this year (TD 13 Feb), the new division is headed up by Paul Ryan who was formerly Vic/Tas exec gm for Flight Centre and more recently gm of travel for group buying operator Scoopon.

Webjet ceo John Guscic said the move was a "material extension of its Australian business".

"Webjet Exclusives offers directly-contracted travel products including hotels, resorts, land and air packages, tours and cruises," he said.

Guscic said that in contrast to other deals sites, all offers featured on Webjet Exclusives are exclusively created, negotiated directly with suppliers and not available elsewhere.

The initiative also features a "powerful and unique" 21 day no-questions-asked money-back guarantee, allowing customers to request a refund for any reason.

ITG Hawaii forum

INDEPENDENT Travel Group has today confirmed it will hold its fifth annual Business Forum in Hawaii this year from 13-16 Nov.

New product & brand marketing initiatives are set to be unveiled at the event, with Hawaiian Airlines the main airline sponsor.

The deals "often provide valuable inclusions at no extra cost," Guscic said.

The expansion is available via a new tab on the Webjet website, which enables users to subscribe to receive further offers.

Existing subscribers must sign up separately to get Webjet Exclusives emails.

Launch product includes both domestic and international deals, with local suppliers including Palazzo Versace on the Gold Coast which starts at $469 for one night including an upgrade, breakfast, a lunch or dinner for two and a complimentary bottle of sparkling wine for bookings of three nights or longer.

It's claimed to be a saving of up to 66% on normal pricing.

International Webjet Exclusives include hotel packages in Bali, Fiji, Vietnam and Thailand as well as a Nepal tour, a trip to China with China Bestours, a Nexus Holidays Canada/Alaska Cruise Tour and an 18-day Mediterranean trip with Med Experience.

The international packages offer tiered pricing based on whether a booking is last minute (for departure in the next two weeks or so) or in low, shoulder or high season.

After purchasing and paying for the deal, via credit card or PayPal, customers receive an emailed voucher which they then present to the supplier when finalising their booking.

See exclusives.webjet.com.au.

Banyan Tree's Cassia for Goldie

BANYAN Tree has confirmed the details of its new niche brand (TD 29 May) which it describes as a "completely new space for the group".

Dubbed Cassia, the operation will offer one and two bedroom units with flexible living and dining options, ranging from 35 to 55 square metres.

Banyan Tree says it has identified a gap in the market, creating "an exciting and bold new proposition in the serviced apartment sector".

"Cassia has been created to bring together investment opportunities for the growing middle class looking for affordable holiday homes, as well as the opportunity to develop an innovative hotel product," the company said, with furnished units starting at S$810,000 each.

Five Cassia projects are already under development, including a new property on the Gold Coast as well as in Phuket, Thailand; Bintan, Indonesia; Beruwala, Sri Lanka; and Lijiang, China.

Initial interest has been strong, with more than 70% of phase one sold in Phuket as well as 45% of the Bintan project.

Banyan Tree said its pipeline also includes planned additions in Brisbane as well as New York, Japan, the Seychelles, Vietnam, Chiang Mai and Bangkok.

The company said the move was part of a strategic global expansion for the Banyan Tree Group, with plans to grow to 66 hotels and resorts, 117 spas and 115 galleries in 33 countries over the next three years.

Travel Daily on location aboard Avalon Illumination

Today's issue of TD is coming to you courtesy of Avalon Waterways, which has debuted its new Avalon Illumination.

THE last day of the Illumination inaugural sees the group travel to Budapest, where we will disembark before spending a final night together at a hotel.

The Hungarian Tourist Board has provided vouchers for all passengers to visit the Geller Bath (www.gellertbath.hu), but someone with insider knowledge has warned us to check beforehand whether it is NUDE day at the facility.

The frivolity follows yet another gala dinner on board the vessel to celebrate its inauguration.

Today's TD includes a full page of pics from the Illumination inaugural - see page six.

Scenic Canada 2015

SIX new journeys have been introduced to Scenic Tours' newly released Canada, Alaska & USA program for 2015.

All new is travel aboard Le Massif de Charlevoix Train from Baie-Saint-Paul to Quebec City in Canada, the American Empress steamboat on Snake & Columbia Rivers in the US Pacific Northwest and a seven-night Alaska Inside Passage cruise on the megayacht L'Austral which visits ports inaccessible to larger ships.

Scenic has also added two new trip extensions, offering exclusive access to Knight Inlet Lodge in British Columbia - renowned for its grizzly bear viewing - and there is a new Northern Lights add-on into Canada's Yukon Territory.

Earlybird offers, incl free return flights to Canada, apply to 30 Nov.

MEANWHILE, Scenic's revised $1,000pp deposit - down from $3,000pp (TD yest) - is valid for all bookings, and not limited to multiple reservations in one year.

KPT treats agents to Blues win

ALTHOUGH the result wasn't quite what the parochial Qld fans wanted in the first State of Origin match, this group of Qld agents enjoyed their night at the footy, treated by Keith Prowse Travel.

The group were positioned right where the action was and were witness to both of NSW's tries.

Travel packages are available now to State of Origin games two and three through Keith Prowse

Travel - phone 1300 730 023.

Hosted by the firm's new Qld bdm Larry Burrows (centre), the group comprised Fiona Borsnerini, Helloworld QLD/Nth NSW; Andrea Turner, TravelManagers; James Hermiston, TravelManagers; Dan Sherin, Travel by Wyndham; Grahame Kent, Helloworld; Helensvale Westfield and Madonna Dwyer from Helloworld Helensvale Plaza.

New ATR for Fiji Link

FIJI Airways' regional subsidiary Fiji Link has taken delivery of its first new ATR 72-600 aircraft, with the turboprop to be utilised on domestic Fiji services as well as new Apia to Suva services.

The aircraft will be based at Suva and will also enhance connectivity between Nadi and Labasa on Fiji's Vanua Levu island.

TA fact sheets refresh

TOURISM Australia has updated a number of consumer research papers covering insights of potential visitors to Australia from 15 major inbound markets.

The papers, originally published in 2012, look at how foreign markets view Australia and what would motivate them to visit.

Each paper covers four key areas of interest including nature, food and wine, Australia's coast and consumer events - to view and download, CLICK HERE.

TG rolls out first B787

BOEING has rolled the first B787-8 Dreamliner painted in Thai Airways International colours from its paint shop in Seattle.

The Bangkok-based carrier will take delivery of six Dash-8 versions, with the first coming in Jul and the remainder over the course of a year.

A further four Dash-9 aircraft will take Thai's total Dreamliner order to ten units and making TG another carrier operating both the B787 and the A380 superjumbo.

Across two cabin classes, each of TGs B787-8 aircraft will offer 264 seats, of which 24 will be in its Royal Silk Business Class cabin.

Korean hotel rebate

A NEW hotel tax refund scheme has been implemented in Korea aimed at enticing more overseas visitors to the country.

The program is applicable for independent travellers only at a select list of hotels which are VAT Tax Refund certified, for stays of two nights but less than thirty.

To be eligible, recipients must present a detailed "Hotel Stay Confirmation Form" at designated tax refund centres on departure.

For details, CLICK HERE.

QF A380 MEL base

QANTAS has confirmed it will establish an Airbus A380 base in Melbourne where it expects 50 pilots to take up posts.

A QF spokesperson told TD the new Victorian A380 base would complement its existing Sydney facility, from which a portion of Qantas' pilots already commute to & from other states regularly.

The Australian flag-carrier said it will also create a new 737 base in Adelaide, joining similar facilities in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Perth, but a definitive date for its debut has not been set.

Avalon illuminates Austria for agents

TRAVEL agents aboard Avalon Illumination this week have enjoyed all the highlights of Vienna courtesy of the Austrian National Tourist Office, as well as a number of picturesque destinations along the Danube including in Austria's world heritage Wachau Valley. These pictures were taken during the journey, which wraps up tonight with a gala dinner in Budapest. Lots more photos from the trip at facebook.com/traveldaily.

LEFT: The golden statue of Strauss in Vienna's Stadtpark is the city's most photographed attraction, and the Avalon group was no exception.

RIGHT: A special treat was a visit to the Albertina where Albrecht Durer's famous Hare watercolour from 1502 is currently on display, for the first time in a decade.

BELOW: The Avalon team at the Spanish Riding School: Stewart Williams, Chris Hill, Christian Schweitzer, Russell Windebank and Laura Hewitt.

ABOVE: Deborah Hutton gives the thumbs up to an Avalon cycling shore excursion in Weisskirchen.

BELOW: Locals in the Wachau Valley village of Rossatz put on a fabulous spread for the group, complete with music from the town band, a keg of beer and wine from the surrounding vineyards.
