BNE Airport invite

BRISBANE Airport is engaging strongly with the travel trade, with an upcoming Australian-first major event welcoming consultants to showcase its “unique passenger experience”.

The milestone “show and go” activity is being conducted in partnership with Hawaiian Airlines, Hawaii Tourism and Outrigger Resorts - with two lucky participants winning a trip flying to Honolulu.

Places are limited to the first 200 agents to register, with the event the first in what is expected to be an ongoing fam program showcasing new destinations direct from Brisbane, as well as the airport facilities themselves.

Andrew Brodie, BNE gm airline and retail management, said “we recognise the important role travel agents play in choosing where their clients fly from...we thought it was time to welcome travel agents to really experience what we have created”.

He said the facilities had been recognised as among the world’s best, with Skytrax naming BNE as Best Airport in Australia 2016/17.

Beijing Capital to Brissie

CHINESE carrier Beijing Capital Airlines has signalled its plans to further broaden its network in Australia, applying to the Civil Aviation Administration of China (CAAC) for slots to Brisbane.

According to its application with the CAAC lodged last week,

Beijing Capital plans to introduce flights to the Queensland capital from Jan, complementing existing services to Melbourne & flagged Sydney services (TD 29 Mar).

The Beijing-Brisbane city pairing is slated to operate four times weekly using Airbus A330s, the same aircraft it flies to MEL.

Beijing Capital is owned by HNA Group which is currently seeking approval from the ACCC for an Alliance Framework Agreement with Virgin Australia between Australia and China.

Jardine resurfaces

FORMER Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA) Australasia commercial director Brett Jardine, who stepped aside earlier this year (TD 17 Jan) has launched a new consulting business, taking on Viking Cruises as his foundation client.

Titled “Cruise Boss,” the new solo venture has been established to “contract to businesses of varying size and style where the cruise industry is a primary focus,” Jardine told Travel Daily.

He is well placed to advise businesses in the sector, with 27 years of experience in the travel industry including almost a decade at CLIA during which Australian cruising has boomed.

Jardine can be contacted on 0419 724 909.

Qantas daily to ZQN

QANTAS today revealed it will offer a daily direct service between Sydney and Queenstown from Oct using Boeing 737s.

The route supports QF’s winter service to ZQN in Jul/Aug.

Indigo Docklands

AUSTRALIA'S second Hotel Indigo has been earmarked for development in the Victorian capital's Docklands precinct.

Revealed this morning, IHG has inked a management deal with Salta Properties to open the 170-room Hotel Indigo Melbourne Docklands in 2019.

The property will feature a large resort-style pool and gym, board & meeting rooms, restaurant & bar, while all guest rooms will have uninterrupted water views.

It will join Hotel Indigo Brisbane Fortitude Valley which opened late last year, and 70 sister-hotels spread around the world.

HWBT signs Simmons

HELLOWORLD Business Travel has signed Victorian corporate agency Sean Simmons Travel (SST) to its network for three years.

Head of associate, corporate & affiliate networks at Helloworld, David Padman said Sean Simmons Travel has a strong client portfolio that will bring "significant volume to the HWBT network".

SST director & founder Simmons said he was keen to utilise HLO systems to "drive expansion".

Alitalia into administration

ITALIAN carrier Alitalia says it will continue to operate flight schedules as planned, despite its board unanimously deciding to proceed with the filing for 'extraordinary administration'.

Overnight, AZ's unions rejected a restructuring and refinancing industrial plan, which would have included 1,700 jobs being cut.

"The negative vote has determined the inability to implement the relaunch and restructuring of the company," the carrier said in a statement.

Ethihad Airways, which owns a 49% stake in Alitalia, said it was disappointed by the decision.

The Abu-Dhabi based carrier and other Italian shareholders had invested €1,722 million into Alitalia since 2014.

"We have done all we could to support Alitalia...but it is clear this business requires fundamental and far-reaching restructuring to survive and grow in the future," outgoing Ethihad Aviaton Group president and chief exec James Hogan said.

Hogan cited "new marketplace challenges" such as greater competition from LCCs and the impact of terrorist events on tourism demand "meant further, deeper change was required".

"Our investment, alongside the other shareholders, has helped to protect thousands of jobs over the last three years."

He added that "Italy remains an important market for us & we will continue to work with Alitalia as a commercial partners alongside our own presence in Italy".

Ethihad reiterated AZ's stance for passengers booked on upcoming Alitalia flights, saying they should "proceed with their travel plans as normal".

MEANWHILE, Ethihad Airways Partner member carrier Air Serbia has confirmed it will suspend its second longest route between Belgrade and Abu Dhabi, effective 29 Oct.

The move follows a review of Air Serbia's 5-year business plan, focussed on strengthening its short-haul European network.

Pax booked on the route beyond 29 Oct will be re-accommodated on services of codeshare partner Ethihad Airways.

Take your customers way beyond infinity.

on location in
Nadi, Fiji

Today's issue of TD is coming to you courtesy of the Fijian Tourism Expo and Tourism Fiji.

FIJI'S tourism industry will be demonstrating its famously warm hospitality this week as it hosts the fourth annual Fijian Tourism Expo.

Tourism Fiji's showcase event is being held at the Denarau Island Convention Centre at the Sheraton Fiji Resort, where industry representatives are gathering ahead of two days of business sessions.

The 2017 Expo kicks off tonight with a welcome cocktail event and official opening by the Fijian President Major-General Jioje Konrote, hosted at the Waitui Beach Club at the Sofitel Fiji Resort and Spa.

Tomorrow brings the first of two days of business sessions and scheduled appointments, before a farewell on Friday at the Fiji Marriott Resort Momi Bay and a weekend famil program.

Odysseus' local push

MIAMI-BASED travel technology firm Odysseus sees "tremendous opportunity" in the APAC market, president and ceo Monish Luthra told TD during a visit down under this week.

The company "connects the dots" between agencies and suppliers and specialises in cruise and flight, but also covers hotel.

"We have about six to eight new cruise lines going live in the next six to eight months as well so we're adding a lot of content within the platform," he said.

In coming weeks Odysseus will launch a dynamic packaging, allowing users to book a cruise, flight and a hotel, which Luthra believes "is a very big piece for this region".

Odysseus is also working on a number of improvements, including making the search function 10-20 times faster.

Luthra said what makes Odysseus stand out from competitors is its features which allow clients to better market their product.

Clients can set up defined groups and send differing pricing and marketing messages for each, depending on their relationship.

Window Seat

NOTHING says "welcome home" like several parking fines.

London's Heathrow Airport and a local council have launched investigations after a valet firm moved some 275 vehicles to council pay-and-display carparks over Easter, the Evening Standard are reported.

Some holidaymakers returned to discover they had been hit with up to five £60 fines.

Companies offering meet-and-greet services from the airport promise to meet customers at the airport then take their vehicle to a "secure parking facility" and return the car before the owner returns.

Heathrow Airport said it was working with police and the local community to investigate this matter further.

Novotel South Wharf

THE new four-star hotel to be developed alongside the Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre will be branded Novotel Melbourne South Wharf.

Hotel owner and developer, Actions Hotel Group selected the brand for the property, set to open in Q1 2018.

Novotel Melbourne South Wharf will encompass 347-rooms and the Novotel Gourmet Bar and Food Exchange concept.

Holidays of Australia scaling up

ADELAIDE-BASED operator Holidays of Australia and the World has appointed Cos Matteo as its new national sales & business development manager, as part of an expansion drive supported by a new online booking platform for the trade.

Matteo joins the company from Venture Holidays, and said the company would maintain a strong focus on the cruise, rail and touring segments.

He said the decision to develop a more user friendly online booking platform would help grow the business, backed by the firm's strong customer service.

"While it's great to be able to book 24/7, when a travel agent wants to phone us they'll never be put on hold," he said.

Other new recruits include product manager Matt Scott and team leader of marketing, digital and social media Dani Parker.

See holidaysofaustralia.com.au.

UA unwinds interlines

UNITED Airlines is discontinuing ticketing and baggage interline agreements with Emirates, flydubai, Qatar Airways, Saudia and Royal Jordanian from 05 May.

Customers will no longer be able to buy tickets with one segment on United & another on one of the Middle East carriers.

Skift are reporting the decision comes as United complain about airlines competing unfairly by taking "massive govt subsidies".

New Botswana levy

A NEW Tourism Development Levy of US$30 is being introduced in Botswana from 01 Jun, South African Airways is advising.

The levy will impact all visitors to Botswana from Australia and is intended to raise money for conservation and tourism development in the country.

It is payable at all ports of entry through electronic payment machines through cash ($US) or with debit and credit cards.

Fiji visitors dip 12%

THE number of Aussies heading to Fiji fell by double-digits during the month of Mar, according to the latest data from the Fiji Bureau of Statistics.

Provisional numbers indicate there were 54,407 arrivals to Fiji during Mar, a decrease of 2.8% year-on-year.

Fiji's largest international market, Australia, slumped 12.3% to 23,489, while UK visitors dipped 5.8% to 1,553.

Despite those drops, there were strong results from the USA (up 15%) and Rest of Asia (up 22%).

For the 12 months to Mar, the number of Australians entering Fiji was down 3.6% to 357,954.

TIE extends earlybird

THE organisers of the upcoming Travel Industry Exhibition & Conference in Sydney and Melbourne have extended the event's earlybird offer, saving $100+GST on bookings by 12 May - see travelindustryexpo.com.au.

King Arthur promo

VISITBRITAIN has launched a "Where Stories Become Legends" digital campaign ahead of the release of the film King Arthur: Legend of the Sword.

In partnership with Warner Bros. Pictures, the push aims to inspire people to book a King Arthur-themed holiday to Britain.

The campaign drives traffic to a page with information on British locations from the film - see www.visitbritain.com/kingarthur.

OS wi-fi activation

AUSTRIAN Airlines is now offering on-board internet on short and medium-haul flights, with all 31 Airbus aircraft in its fleet equipped with the service.

Three options are available - FlyNet Message (messages and email) for €3, FlyNet Surf (web browsing) for €7 and FlyNet Stream (streaming) for €12.

The service is provided using Inmarsat GX and Deutsche Telekom technology.

TravelManagers in Italy with CIT

NINE TravelManagers across Australia recently enjoyed a six-night Italy educational experience, hosted by CIT Holidays' Carol Scalercio and Melbourne based Qatar Airways sales executive Jennifer Julio.

The group experienced each location like their clients would, something personal travel manager Kylie Luttrell said was "the only way to go."

"I'm completely confident in combining the Agriturismo Camiano Piccolo with absolutely luxurious hotels in Florence and Rome knowing this will create a wonderful experience."

The group enjoyed a morning truffle hunt in Spoleto at Bartoli, as well as local wines and authentic Italian cuisine.

They also explored the Camiano Piccolo estate's accommodation near Montefalco with its expansive gardens and buildings that date back to the 16th century before posing for a photo.

Paris next for QF 787s

AUSTRALIAN flag carrier Qantas is looking to Paris, with industry insiders reporting Perth to Paris flights will commence late next year with Boeing 787-9s.

The second 787 destination from Perth would be launched with the delivery of the second batch of four 236-seat 787-9s Dreamliners from the middle of next year.

Qantas would not confirm the next per 787 route to media, however Qantas executive manager corporate affairs and communication told New Corp the airline was "excited about the potential of the Perth hub."

Senior sources in the airline's pilot ranks have confirmed to AirlineRatings.com a new 787 pilot base would be set up in Brisbane to support a Dallas or Los Angeles-Brisbane-Perth-Paris flight rotation.

MEANWHILE Merrill Lynch has changed its rating on QF to "buy", because of the benefits the 787 services would bring to QF.

Thomas Cook closures

TRAVEL agency Thomas Cook Retail will close a further 17 stores and affecting 62 members of staff.

The UK company said it would aim to move staff elsewhere in the business if possible.

Four TC stores and 13 Co-operative travel agencies are part of the closures.

In Feb, TC revealed it was closing 39 shops as part of a review of its retail network following 28 shop closures in Oct last year, affecting 400 staff.

TC is still opening new Discovery stores in busy areas.
