Scenic sales teams merge

SCENIC this morning unveiled a new structure for its sales force across Australia and New Zealand, reflecting a strategic decision to combine the Evergreen and Scenic teams for the first time.

Rob Kalemba, director of sales and agent programs, said the expanded representation followed the recent appointment of five new team members, with the now 18-strong contingent representing the complete portfolio of Scenic Group brands.

"The new team is focussed on providing better support for agents across Australia with a strong business development focus to assist agents in building new business opportunities and growth through the Scenic portfolio of products," he said.

Kalemba noted that combining the brands would make it simpler for travel consultants to interact with the company.

"This will build in efficiencies for us, but will also provide a more seamless point of contact for our agent database," he said.

The expanded team comprises Jarrod Zurvos, Kate Foster, Kate Doherty & Zena Dalton in Vic/Tas; Amanda Todd, Alicia Vincent, Cherie Bowman & Cathy Page in NSW/ACT; Leanne Willmot, Fiona Heron, Karen Mackay & Sara Puglia in Qld/Northern NSW; Katy Oxer & Michell Jacques in WA; Regan Grainger & Damien Wolff in SA/NT; and Karyn Blenkinson & Tracey Brennan in NZ.

New ETG marketer

EXPRESS Travel Group has appointed Nicole Henry as its new marketing services manager. Henry joins ETG from her former role as trade marketing manager for Scenic. More industry appointments on page 7 of today's Travel Daily.

TM web upgrade

TRAVELMANAGERS has unveiled a recent upgrade to the standalone websites that are provided to its Personal Travel Managers, with the move said to "empower them to promote their own individual strengths and areas of interest". Executive gm Michael Gazal said the new version went far beyond the previous static profile page, allowing members to embed their own specialist content but also pull through information provided by TravelManagers head office such as deals, blogs, travel advice, apps and videos.

Rezdy seals Hotelbeds pact

SYDNEY-BASED activities booking software provider Rezdy has signed a strategic partnership with Hotelbeds Group, which will progressively add real-time bookings of tours and attractions to its offering.

Hotelbeds describes itself as the "world's largest bedbank," having last year acquired GTA Travel and subsidiaries such as TravelCube (TD 24 Apr 2017) as well as Tourico Holidays (TD 09 Feb 2017).

The first stage of the Rezdy agreement has seen activities integrated from Paris, Stockholm, Oslo, Copenhagen & Barcelona, with the rollout to expand to Asia Pacific "where Rezdy has a particularly strong product base, having originally been founded in Australia".

Rezdy ceo Chris Atkin said the Hotelbeds deal would grow the company's distribution network of travel intermediaries, giving customers access to new distribution channels and booking segments that might otherwise be difficult to reach.

"This is great news for the tour, attraction and activity companies we work with, as every business is naturally always looking for ways to increase their bookings and grow their business without greatly increasing their workload."

The Rezdy content will sit under Hotelbeds' Ancillary Bank division, with director Javier Arevalo saying Rezdy's real-time booking solutions were "transforming the industry at a time when offering mobile booking tools is absolutely critical".

The Ancillary Bank operation distributes ancillary products such as excursions, attraction tickets, car rental and cruises to retail travel agents, wholesalers, tour operators, airlines, OTAs and tourism boards.

Hotelbeds ancillary subsidiary brands include car rental aggregator Carnect and B2C tours and activities website Isango!

Laos flood alert

THE Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade has reissued its Smartraveller advice for Laos, warning of a dam collapse and extreme weather conditions which mean rivers and waterways in many parts of the country may reach dangerous levels.

The overall advice remains at the 'exercise normal safety precautions' alert level.

Tempo value pack

Ovolo sales head

OVOLO Hotels has named Christopher James as its general manager of sales for Australia.

His past roles have included assistant director of global sales at The Langham Hospitality Group and business development manager at AccorHotels.

Jabiru 5-star lodge plan

THE Kakadu gateway town of Jabiru will become home to a five-star lodge and upmarket “glamping” facilities under a new masterplan released today.

Unveiled by the Northern Territory Government and the Gundjeihmi Aboriginal Corporation, the plan aims to reposition Jabiru in the post-mining era, making it a tourism and regional services hub.

The plan outlines a business case for developments including a lodge and high-end camping and a World Heritage Interpretive Centre to showcase the Kakadu National Park.

It proposes the creation of a wellness centre and the positioning of Jabiru as a hub for eco-tourism, along with other measures such as the expansion of Jabiru Lake to provide “croc-free” year-round activities.

The plan is aimed at arresting a decline in visitors to the area while also combatting the Top End’s seasonal constraints.

It also acknowledges support will be needed from the Federal Government, as the operator of the National Park.

“The NT Government is supporting the traditional owners to achieve this ambitious vision and recognises that along with financial commitments from the Territory and Commonwealth governments, significant private investment will be required,” said the territory’s Chief Minister Michael Gunner.

“The Commonwealth Government is responsible for Kakadu National Park, and a significant financial contribution from them will be required to reinvigorate the park, which is critical to Jabiru’s bright future.”

A POP-UP pub with 230 types of US craft beers will open in the United Kingdom on 20 Aug.

Virgin Atlantic and Delta have joined forces to open The Joint Venture pub on New Oxford Street, Holborn, providing travellers the chance to sample beer from across America.

“Delta and Virgin Atlantic are both renowned for their hospitality and The Joint Venture enables us to bring this from the air to the ground,” said Delta’s senior vp for Europe, Middle East, Africa and India Corneel Koster.

Europcar issues credit card defence

EUROPCAR has acknowledged the ACCC's decision to institute civil proceedings in relation to credit card surcharges (TD yesterday), confirming that 22,602 customers who paid by debit card during a two month period in 2017 were "unintentionally overcharged".

The affected clients were fully refunded the difference in credit and debit card fees as soon as the data was available to identify and correct the issue, Europcar said.

The amounts refunded ranged from 1c to $18.33, with an average of 89c per customer.

In relation to ACCC allegations relating to Jul-Aug 2017 Europcar says it believes it complied with the new regulations.

"We have fully cooperated with the ACCC since it commenced its investigation," the company added, saying the Commission's action was "disappointing".

BA links Pittsburgh

BRITISH Airways will launch services from London Heathrow to Pittsburgh from 02 Apr next year, giving the carrier 26 direct US destinations.

Flights will operate four times per week to the Pennsylvania city aboard Boeing 787-9 aircraft.

Thai celebrates live TV launch

THAI Airways marked the success of its free in-flight Live TV offering last night at a celebration event in Bangkok joined by media from 12 countries.

Thai rolled out the service on 14 Jun across 12 of the airline's Airbus A350-900 aircraft and eight Boeing 787-8 and 787-9 aircraft on selected routes, with Panasonic Avionics providing the entertainment and inflight connectivity via satellite.

Currently there are four channels available covering news and sports including CNN, BBC, NHK and Sport 24, with further channels likely to be added based on passenger demand.

Speaking to Travel Daily in Bangkok yesterday, Thai director brand and advertising Kittiphong Sansomboon said, "So far we have received very good comments for our Live TV via emails and social media, and in particular this feedback relates to the sporting channels".

The launch of Live TV - which Thai says it is "pleased to offer for free" - also coincided with the FIFA World Cup 2018 in Russia.

Hyatt for Budapest

HYATT Hotels Corporation has announced plans for a Hyatt Regency hotel in Budapest, Hungary, which is set to open in early 2020.

Further amenities include a spa, fitness facilities and an indoor swimming pool.

The hotel will be located near Vaci Street and the Danube river.

Ryanair cuts fleet

RYANAIR'S Board today approved a plan to cut its Dublin based fleet by 20% from 30 to 24 this northern winter, as of 28 Oct.

The reductions were driven by growth of Ryanair's Polish charter airline Ryanair Sun, allied to a downturn in forward bookings and airfares in Ireland, partly due to strikes by Irish pilots.

Ryanair's coo Peter Bellew said aircraft would be allocated to "markets where we are enjoying strong growth," and that "aircraft reductions and job cuts in country markets where business has weakened or forward bookings are being damaged by rolling strikes by Irish pilots".

Delta lifts Havana

DELTA Air Lines is adding a second non-stop flight from Miami International Airport to Havana, Cuba, starting on 08 Oct.

The flight will operate five times a week on an Airbus A320 aircraft.

EXPRESS Travel Group hosted 12 lucky agents (pictured) from italktravel, Independent Travel Group and Select Travel Group at P!NK's Beautiful Trauma World Tour concert at Rod Laver Arena in Melbourne on the weekend.

Thanks to Cathay Pacific, Emirates and Korean Air, the group of top selling agencies from each state for each carrier were treated to the ultimate VIP P!NK experience including return flights to Melbourne, a night's accommodation and a drinks & dining experience at the concert.

Scout chatbot live

SCOOT has become the first Asian carrier to allow payment via an online chatbot, called MARVIE.

The service is able to search flights, display fares and availability, make bookings & accept credit card transactions.

Hilton growth surge

HILTON Worldwide Holdings has revealed net income of US$217m in its second quarter results, a 44% increase on the same period last year.

Earnings (EBITDA) were up 10% to US$55 million, while system-wide RevPAR increased 4%.

The group also approved 28,000 new rooms for development & opened 17,100 new rooms.
