Icon under a microscope

THIS landmark is iconic and easily recognisable when you see the whole picture, but can you identify it from this small portion of the image?

This stone circle has been the subject of plenty myths and legends over the years, with experts still unsure exactly what the site was used for and even how it was built.

Can you name the site?

A-maze-ing

CAN you find your way through this maze? Start at the top and finish at the bottom.

Funnies Flashback

WE'VE trawled through the TD Window Seat archives to give you a blast from the past. Here's some gems from 26 Aug 2014:

AUSTRALIA'S oldest operating graveyard could be latching on to a new niche growing in popularity - cemetery tourism.

West Terrace Cemetery in Adelaide has reported record visitor numbers for the 2013/14 financial year following the launch of guided tours and self-guided walking trails for guests.

The facility offers five trails that visitors can walk including "Beliefs, Attitudes and Customs", "Stories of the Everyday" and the "Trailblazing Women" walk.

For the truly fearless, a new evening series held on Fri nights which incorporates theatrical lights, sound and period actors is proving especially popular.

Famous faces

THERE are three different faces that make up this picture.

They are a mixture of famous celebrities and travel names.

Can you figure out who the eyes, nose and mouth in this picture belong to?

And don't worry if you can't guess them all, two out of three ain't bad!
