

You've GoCA get to Ayers Rock Resort!

VOYAGES Indigenous Tourism Australia celebrated the first anniversary of the opening of the Gallery of Central Australia (GoCA) and the 10th anniversary of their dune top dining experience, Tali Wiru at Ayers Rock Resort last week.

Travel and lifestyle media, trade partners, as well as artists and art centre managers from the Central Desert region celebrated together by exploring the GoCA and were treated to a private performance by Indigenous Aria, award-winning artist, Miiesha.

Guests also got to taste the new 10 year anniversary menu at Tali Wiru, explore Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park with SEIT's Uluru Highlights experience, as well as AAT King's Valley of the Winds tour at Kata Tjuta and Sunrise Field of Light.

FABIOLA Martinez-Hinojosa, Matt Cameron-Smith, Rhoda Roberts AO and Rene Kullitja celebrate one year of GoCA.

CHEFS at Tali Wiru showcase native ingredients.

TRADE and media exploring the Gallery of Central Australia.

GUESTS hiked the Valley of the Winds at Kata Tjuta with AAT Kings.

A MEMBER of the all Indigenous team at Tali Wiru.

SUNRISE at the Field of Lights was nothing short of spectacular.

DOMINIQUE Atzenhoffer from Helloworld, Collette's Roger Clulow and Annika Leslie of All Pacific Travel Concept celebrate 10 years of Tali Wiru.

ABOVE: Voyages' Raphaela Drachsler and Kathy Majetic with Kathy Georgiou of ATS Pacific enjoying Tali Wiru.

TRADE, media, and local artists listen to addresses at the GoCA anniversary event.

BELOW: Miiesha performs at the anniversary event.